Whether you're visiting for work or pleasure we've got you covered with the coolest locals-only tips!

TRES BASTARDOS CALLE 71 # 10-8

Julian Hoyos is the chef of this very particular restaurant in Quinta Camacho. Although he usually remains behind the pots and pans, he will sometimes bring along an invited chef. There is only one table to share with up to fourteen guests to delight in a six course meal that changes every day. This place is all about opening up your mind to live a gastronomic experience.

INSIDER TIP Although every day the menu changes ask for the delicious "Fake bone marrow" made out of Palm hearts and pate.

VARIETALE CALLE 41 # 8-43

Right across the Javeriana University, housed in a former convent and bustling with nearby university students you will find Varietale. This trendy brew bar offers a variety of different methods—AeroPress, Chemex, a three-burner syphon station—and the baristas are real pro's. The entrance to the cafe is enchanting: sunlight illuminates the bar and the colorful white and blue tiles make it the ideal stop for a great coffee.

INSIDER TIP Try this month's variety of new teas all cultivated in Colombia.

ON STAGE COLDPLAY

April 13 - 20:00

Where? El Campin Stadium

Don't miss out on Coldplay's second visit to Colombia, this time with their "A Head Full Of Dreams Tour".

BOG FASHION LAB CRA. 13 # 78-98 LOCAL 3

Andrea Diaz opened the doors of Bog Fashion Lab last year. The entire store is designed in all white which might remind you of a laboratory but Andrea's mission is to look for emerging Colombian designers that will make our closets come alive. INSIDER TIP Make sure to check out Lia Samantha's colorful collection of dresses and accessories!

BOGOTA WINE AND FOOD FESTIVAL

APRIL 20 - 24

Once again the BWFF will be the meeting place for national and international chefs to experiment with Colombian ingredients and flavors. This year's special guests are Alain Ducasse, Nicolas Mass and Leo Espinosa.
