Welcome to W Bogota! Located 2600 meters closer to the stars at the foot of the Andean Mountains, Bogota is a vibrant, energetic and artistic capital in constant transformation; prepare yourself to escape and discover its fascinating history and culture, local gastronomic scene, exclusive designer's shops and vibrant nightlife. Whether you're visiting for work or pleasure we've got you covered with the coolest locals-only tips!

MADRE CALLE 12 # 5 - 83

Madre literally is a hidden gem in Bogota's Candelaria district. Located between Emerald shops at the back of a former warehouse this has become a very trendy hot spot amongst locals. Its industrial inspired design, cool vibe, refreshing juices, delicious antipasti and pizzas make it a perfect place to hang out and grab a bite to eat while visiting the historic city center.

INSIDER TIP All the dishes are named after typical mothers' names; try the "Bianca" pizza to share which has spicy Spanish chorizo, thyme, garlic and mozzarella cheese.

ROSÉ CONCEPT STORE CRA. 14A # 82-42

Like wine, ROSÉ is a new concept store in which fresh and young designers are growing and ready for harvest. This newly opened two-story boutique in the heart of la Zona Rosa displays the designs of Carlo Carrizosa and Adriana Tavera, two very talented and upcoming designers that are worth checking out.

INSIDER TIP Maria Alexandra, the designer behind Di Tè creates pieces that are different, bold and unique.

SALVO PATRIA CALLE 54A # 4-13

In the middle of Chapinero Alto you will find Salvo Patria, this neighborhood restaurant has witnessed a great success in recent years thanks to the dedication of chef Alejandro Gutierrez and owner Juan Manuel Ortiz. Their cuisine is based on using local ingredients, responsible fishing, organic vegetables and free range poultry.

INSIDER TIP The menu changes by the seasons, my favorite starters are the grilled organic vegetables and Smoked trout with cassava and elderberry. This place is also ideal to enjoy different types of
