KURU

CRA. 13 # 85-46

Diego Soriano and Miguel Cañón are the chefs of this brand new Japanese restaurant in la zona rosa. Its sleek design, open kitchen and impeccable service really impress and no detail was spared. Some of the ingredients are imported directly from Japan using only the best quality fish; don't miss out on the robata grill and just order everything to share! INSIDER TIP The salmon tartar is to die for with a perfect balance of savory dashi, citrus aromas, topped with fried capers and edible flowers.

MASA

CALLE 81 # 9-12 / CALLE 70 # 4-83

Silvana and Mariana Villegas are the proud owners of MASA which has become the favorite breakfast place for many locals. Whether you pass by for a freshly baked croissant, a healthy sandwich for lunch or a pastry to calm your sweet tooth you will always find a crowd. INSIDER TIP My favorite breakfast dish is the "Huevos a la crema". For lunch you should try the roast beef tartine and finish off with the mouthwatering homemade ice-cream sandwich.
